

How can you make use of the European Digital Education Hub in your projects?

TAP INTO CURATED RESOURCES AND INSPIRING PRACTICES

Join the Hub and check out the thematic channels like the Reading Corner for curated materials and best practices related to the topic of your project. Get inspired by compact digital education materials, dive into papers on cutting-edge research issues and check out the Hub's inspiring practices from other projects.

JOIN THE HUB'S WORKSHOPS AND WORKING GROUPS

Workshops offer in-person co-creation possibilities to address real digital-education challenges. Working groups or "squads" provide structured, six-month online co-creation on specific themes. By participating, your expertise contributes to concrete outputs that advance policy, practice, and Europe's digital education ecosystem.

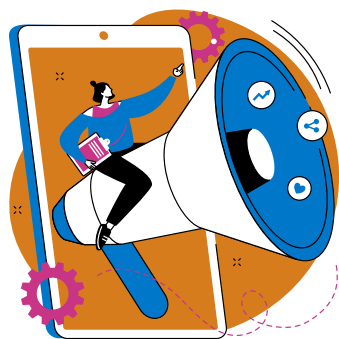

LEARN FROM EXPERTS AND CONNECT WITH PEERS

From webinars and debates to sessions showcasing members' projects and interactive "Ask Me Anything" events, the Hub brings together diverse expertise to explore a wide range of topics related to digital education. In the various channels of the Hub, you can connect and exchange with peers and other projects across Europe and beyond.

STAY INFORMED, STAY AHEAD

By joining the Hub, you will stay updated on activities, project calls and relevant events. In its newsletter, the Hub informs subscribers twice a month about the latest events, opportunities and digital education highlights.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Through the Innovation Funnel - the Hub's community tool for selecting activity themes - you can actively share your ideas and help shape what the Hub focuses on next. Whether it's a topic for a squad, a webinar, or another activity, this is the space to explore your project ideas and turn them into engaging exchanges for the whole community.

SHARE YOUR EXPERTISE

Take an active role in the community by sharing your expertise or your project results. Join the events, present your project or participate in the next call for inspiring practices. Your project experience can benefit others!

What is the European Digital Education Hub?

The European Digital Education Hub \(EDEH\) is the European Commission's community of practice for digital education enthusiasts from all sectors of education. It brings together educators, researchers, policymakers, EdTech innovators, and organisations to collaborate, exchange knowledge, and shape the future of digital education in Europe.

Whether you are developing a project, seeking partners, or looking to stay ahead of emerging trends, the Hub provides the tools, expertise, and network to support you.
