

ONLINE STUDY VISIT IN FINLAND

Joint Activity with EQAVET NRPs from Finland, Greece, Slovenia and Croatia

VET Graduate Tracking system in Finland

The use of information on VET graduate tracking at VET provider level and at system level to improve VET provision and VET qualifications (feedback)

Time	Wednesday 27.1.2021 at 9.30 – 16 (Finnish time)
Place	Online webinar via Teams
Organizer	Finnish National Agency for Education, Helsinki, Finland
Objectives	Peer learning in Graduate Tracking systems
Target Group	NRPs, national VET administration, VET providers, skills forecasting and other VET experts
Number of Participants	Because of the COVID-19 situation this Study Visit will be held as an online webinar. Therefore, there is no need to limit the number of participants from each country (for technical reasons the maximum number is about 200 people).
Participation fee	Free of charge
Registration	Registration for the webinar by 22.1.2021 via this link: https://link.webpolsurveys.com/S/457780A2106D0E7B A participation link will be sent to all registrants before the webinar.

Program

Wednesday 27.1.2021

9.30 – 9.40	Welcome! Objective of the webinar and practical instructions for the day Mrs. Riikka Vacker and Mrs. Sanna Laiho, Counsellor of Education, Vocational Education and Training, Finnish National Agency for Education (EDUFI)
9.40 – 10.00	Current in vocational education and training in Finland Mrs. Kati Lounema, Counsellor of Education, Head of unit, Vocational Education and Training, EDUFI

A brief overview from partner countries

10.00 – 11.00	What's going on in the graduate tracking right now: current topics in development and in the use of information - Greece Mr. Stavros, Gavroglou, Director, The National Institute of Labor & Human Resources Mr. Antonios Glaros, Head of Communication & Development Division national organisation for the certification of qualifications and vocational guidance
---------------	---

- Slovenia
Ms. Sonja Mavsar, Project Coordinator, Republic of Slovenia Ministry of Education, Science and Technology
Ms. Saša Grašič, Senior Advisor, National Institute for VET
- Croatia
Ms. Sandra Dobrić, Senior Expert Advisor for Project Preparation and Implementation, Agency for VET and Adult Education

Questions

11.15 – 11.30 Break

The use of information on graduate tracking at national level

11.30 – 11.55 KOSKI - a National Registry and Data Transfer Service for Study Rights and Completed Studies
Mr. Juho Mikkonen, senior advisor, Information Management, EDUFI

Questions

11.55 – 12.15 The use of graduate tracking information in funding the VET provider
Mr. Seppo Hänninen, senior adviser, Government funding, EDUFI

12.15 – 13.00 Lunch break

The use of information on graduate tracking at VET provider level

13.00 – 14.00 Case: Tampere Adult Education Centre, TAKK
Monitoring the needs of labor market – different kind of tools of VET provider
Mrs. Satu Neuvonen, Development Director, TAKK

Case: Ylä-Savo Vocational College
The use of information in every level of organisation: real-time scorecard, indicators, target levels and results to monitor
Mrs. Niina Puumalainen, Development Director, Ylä-Savo Vocational College

Questions

14.00 – 14.15 Break

The use of information on graduate tracking at national level

14.15 – 15.00 The VET graduate tracking system in Finland and plans for its development at the national level
Mr. Tomi Kytölä, Senior specialist, Ministry of Education and Culture

Questions

Quick look: Vipunen - the education administration's reporting portal
Mrs. Riikka Vacker, Counsellor of Education, Vocational Education and Training, Finnish National Agency for Education (EDUFI)

15.00 – 15.30

Conclusions and the webinar ends

Changes are possible

