- The call for applications is restricted to the field of humanities and social sciences based on the recommendations from the assessment of Russia operations.
- One intensive course can be funded in the application round.

General terms and conditions

- The amount of the grant can be a maximum of EUR 30,000.
- At least one university from Finland and one from Russia must participate in the intensive course.
- The grant is intended to cover the costs resulting from the mobility and accommodation and subsistence of the participants in the intensive course.
- The duration the intensive course is at least 1 week (= 5 working days + travel days).
- The intensive course must be held in Finland.

Evaluation criteria

- RELEVANCE
- THE QUALITY OF THE COOPERATION, PLAN AND IMPLEMENTATION
- IMPACT

Relevance

- The intensive course meets an educational and/or research need that has broader significance in terms of cooperation between the countries.
- The intensive course relies on existing cooperation and experiences but brings clear added value in relation to earlier initiatives.
- The universities have an institutional commitment to and interest in the activities (for example, strategic priorities).

Quality of the cooperation, plan and implementation

- The theme and content of the intensive course are planned so that they meet the presented needs in a convincing manner.
- The basic information of the intensive course is described clearly and the programme/schedule has been planned in a realistic and cost-effective way.
- As far as possible, an equal number of students and teachers from Finnish and Russian universities should participate in the intensive course.

Impact

- The application describes the impact in terms of the participants and organisations.
- The expected results/outcomes are described in a concrete and realistic manner.
- Rather than being an isolated entity, the intensive course is integrated into normal university activities.
