I'm proud of the trust between us – that the forest owners want to sell their wood to us. In addition, I'm truly proud of the fact that we are a forerunner in sustainable development in our field. We use our wonderful natural resources sustainably.

I am proud of Metsä’s values, especially renewal – that’s a really important value for me. It is visible here in our daily work as we are constantly developing and making progress.

It is great to be involved in innovative work and to be developing a new textile fibre. I believe that it will have a great future.

Here in Kemi, we have a close-knit yet open workplace community, and everyone is highly motivated and works toward the same goal. These aspects make our work meaningful.
“We want to encourage everyone to boldly size new opportunities and challenges.”
