In 2019 43,035 16–25-year-olds started a vocational upper secondary qualification in Finland.

Absolute number of students

Proportion of those who completed a mobility period in the 16–25-year-olds who started their vocational upper secondary qualification in 2019 (%)

Sources: EDUFI and Statistics Finland, graphics: Liisa Valtonen

• The calculation method has changed. Students’ international mobility has been proportioned to the number of 16–25-year-olds who started education leading to a vocational upper secondary qualification. It corresponds approximately to the situation that preceded the reform of VET, when mobility was proportioned to the number of young people who started the education.